Exclusive Opportunity: Must-See Brands Digital Showcase

The WWETT Show isn't just another trade show – it's where the wastewater and environmental services community rolls up its sleeves and gets down to business. For exhibitors with solutions that work in the field, we've created an exclusive digital opportunity to put your innovations directly in front of the people who need them most.

WHY THIS MATTERS:

Trending service categories – from trenchless technology to business management systems – are growing as operators expand their capabilities and modernize their operations. Businesses are looking for partners who understand their needs. Connect directly with attendees who aren't just browsing – but actively seeking solutions to current challenges.

YOUR $3,000 INVESTMENT INCLUDES:

- Premium Digital Placement on a dedicated Must-See Brands landing page
- Company Profile & Logo showcasing your unique value proposition
- Direct Link to your full exhibitor directory profile
- Multi-Channel, Targeted Promotion reaching thousands of qualified buyers:
  - Pre-show email promoting landing page to targeted audience
  - Post-show email promoting landing page to targeted audience
  - Targeted social media campaign, one post pre-show and one post-show
  - Landing Page featured on the main WWETT Show website

Limited positions available – secure yours before they're gone!

Deadline to purchase is November 21, 2025.

Precision Targeted Marketing Bundle: Email + Digital Advertising

CAPTURE THE ATTENTION OF DECISION-MAKERS WHERE IT MATTERS MOST

Connect with the pros who are actively hunting for solutions that work in the field. Leverage two powerful marketing channels and drive real results with our most effective targeted bundle. This package combines the broad digital reach of display advertising with laser-focused email marketing to create multiple touchpoints with qualified buyers who have problems to solve and budgets to spend.

WHY THIS WORKS:

The science of marketing it clear: multiple touchpoints build the trust that leads to real partnerships. This strategic combination creates a powerful effect, keeping your brand front-and-center with the exact buyers who need your solutions. Because in wastewater and environmental services, the best connections happen when you're there at exactly the right moment with exactly the right answer.
